September 06

Hi Everyone

It is hard to believe we are already in the fifth month of the year. I hope you enjoyed the Easter break, and that you are well rested. The college has grown in numbers, and we are grateful for what God is doing in the lives of our students. Cornerstone values the support, prayers and input of Alumni over the years.

God Bless You.

Richard in Korea

Richard Mee '05 has started teaching English and Phonics at a English language school in Korea. Richard will also start teaching Physical Education at a later stage. He enjoys working with the Korean children, and it has been a challenge to him

Pray for Richard's health and his work with the children.

Looking for a few good Alumni

We are still looking for available alumni to serve on the Alumni Association. If you think you have the time and want to part of the Association, please give me a call or get in touch with me via email.

Alumni on Staff

Nondumiso Majozi '05 was appointed as the new Bursary Officer.

Carl Badenhorst '04 was appointed as the Quality Assurance Officer.

It is a pleasure for staff and faculty to see more alumni come on board.

Bursary Blessings

God bless you for contributing to the bursary fund, which now has a balance of R2800. Thank you for making a difference to at least one student per year.

Pastor Dlamini

Fino Dlamini '05 was ordained as the Senior Pastor of Rapha Fellowship Centre in Gugulethu, Cape Town, on the 20th of November 2005.

Fino started the church in a house of one of his members. The church has since grown in and had to move to bigger premises in Gugulethu.

Fino is supported by his wife Nosandi who is in her second year at Cornerstone studying Psychology.

Please keep on praying for Ps Fino and his ministry.

More Studies for Jele

After leaving Cornerstone Jele Manganyi '04 started to study part-time at the University of Pretoria. He is currently in his second year MPhil in Applied Theology with the intention to go on to his PhD.

Jele is also a Pastor at his local church in Thembisa, Pretoria.

The Faculty and Staff of Cornerstone wish Jele well with his studies and we are proud of what he has achieved.

Bereavement

Enoch Phiri's '98 wife Alice passed away after a long illness in Blantyre Malawi. While studying at Cornerstone, Enoch spoke with so much love and compassion about his wife.

The staff and faculty met dear Alice when Enoch graduated.

Please pray for the Phiri family's healing as they face each day without her.

Ross and Leigh

Ross Gillespie '04 and his wife Lee Flack Davison '02 left for Mozambique to do missions work.

The couple is working as part of a mission effort sponsored by Meadowridge Baptist Church. Ross and Lee will need our prayers as they engage in teaching English (Leigh) and pastoral / evangelistic ministry (Ross).
